

Proposal: Modification of Lens-Based Art Minor

The Art and Art History Department requests approval from The School of Arts and Communication Curriculum Committee to modify the current Lens-Based Art Minor. The Lens-Based minor was approved in 2013 when the Visual Arts major was created and at that time, flexible curriculum was the primary goal. The proposed changes to the minor focus on sequential learning for specificity in acquired knowledge. This change will better prepare non-major students.